

Instructor: K.K. Dion
Office: S-538 A

Office Hours: Tuesdays, 1-2 PM

PSYCHOLOGY 522
Spring term, 1995

Course content: This course focuses on theory and research concerning issues in the area of socialization; viz., moral judgment, the development of internalized control over behaviour and the socio-cultural context of moral development.

In addition, you will have an opportunity to examine other selected issues in the area of socialization when you choose a topic for your class presentation and position paper.

Course policy: In addition to lecture-discussion, there will be a series of class debates which focus on salient controversies within this area. You will be choosing your topic at the beginning of the term.

Evaluation:

Examination (essay format) 35%
Class presentation of debate topic 20%
Paper on debate topic 25%
Participation in class discussion 20%

Required Reading: There is no textbook to purchase. The required reading is on reserve in the library.